Washington could be controlled, but he got short, swift answers.

The witness testified that George F. Baker of the First National Bank had been called up and received similar confirmation over the telephone, but Mr. Baker did not disclose the name of the person who was supposed to be talking. After the money trust investigation had started, the man who was busy with the telephone called up Mr. Baker and reminded him that he might the days when the Steel investigation was being agitated. Finally Mr. Baker suggested that Mr. Ledyard should meet the man who was telephoning.

his at college and in law school. His name was J. Sergeant Cram, a member of the Public Service Commission of New York city. "Mr. Cram," said Mr. Ledyard, "did not keep that appointment. I was notified by a servant at Mr. Baker's house that there was a telegram saying he could not keep it. I say Mr. Cram, but of course I mean the person who gave the name of Mr. Cram over the tele-

Long Island where Mr. Cram lived and somebody answered. I said I was sorry Mr. Cram could not keep his appointment with me and he told me he was not quite well. I said I was going away and would not be back for some time and he said, 'Oh, well, it will keep.' Whether Mr. Cram understood that or not I do not know. I have never had any talk with him about it since."

That is the way matters stood, so far as telephone conversations went, when on February 4 last Mr. Ledyard received a communication over the telephone from an individual who represented himself as Congressman Palmer. Mr. Ledyard already was suspicious and he proceeded to make full and complete notes of the

Had Never Known Palmer.

He had never known Mr. Palmer he did not for a moment believe that the man who was talking was Palmer. He suspected Lamar from the start. Mr. Ledyard then read a complete record of his experiences with the man who represented himself to be Mr. Palmer.

The man who represented himself as Palmer referred mysteriously to a conference with "C," meaning, of course Mr. cram. Mr. Ledyard, asked if the gentleman's first name was "J," and the voice over the telephone said it was. Mr. Ledyard denied that he had any such conference and the alleged Palmer expressed himself as greatly surprised 'Mr. Palmer" described himself over the telephone merely as Mr. "P" and Mr. identity through other mysterious hints that were thrown out.

Mr. "P" in this first telephonic conversation spoke of the policy of the Democratic party in the new Adminis-He regretted that the attitude of the Morgan company had been so uncompromising and that Mr. Morgan had refused to consider suggestions that the money trust investigation be arrested. Mr. "P" informed Mr. Ledyard that he had received information in regard to Mr. Morgan's attitude from the

Brings In Party Leaders.

want to say to you," said Mr. "P "that the situation that has resulted from the attacks upon the Morgan interests has come from a clearly entertained belief upon the part of the controlling men in the Democratic party of this attitude of deflance, and if that impression has been erronously enter-tained the sooner we find it out the

Mr. "P" added that the present conditions in regard to the Steel Corporation were critical, with the new administration coming into power. He was very anxious himself that the party should adopt a sane and wise policy, but it was hopeless to expect such a policy without the cordial cooperation of the Interests affected. Mr. said that the possibility that he was mistaken in regard to the attitude of with him. Mr. Ledyard told him the scanned there was no surety that he Mr. Morgan and others caused him so much anxiety that he would make further inquiries before saying more.

Mr. "P" called Ledyard up again and Mr. Ledyard had a long talk with him Mr. "P" wanted to know if Mr. Ledyard represented the Steel Corporation or Mr. Morgan. Again Mr. "P" said he was worried over Mr. Ledyard's statement that Mr. Morgan had not' been defiant toward the steel or trust in?

Anxious to End Doubt.

Mr. "P" said he and the Democratic he was prepared to state to Mr. Led-yard through whom the reports to the Speaker on this had been made and Again Mr. "P." expressed great sur-Speaker on this had been made, and then volunteered the information that Mr. Lauterbach was the man. Mr. "P." wished to put Mr. Ledyard in communication with Mr. Lauterbach, saying he would communicate with Mr. Ledyard again after the Lauterbach interview. Mr. Ledyard wanted to know of Mr. "P." if he did not know who was supposed to be behind Lauterbach and what private interests he was suppose 'Did you not know." asked Mr. Led-"that there is an individual whose character is well known in this community who is supposed to have who is supposed to be in close relations with Mr. Lauterbach and that the latter is his counsel and representa-

"You mean a man whose name is D. L." Mr. "P." replied, and Mr. Ledyard acknowledged that was the man, Told to Refuse Money.

"If anything is said to you about money." Mr. P. went on to say over the telephone, "you tell them you have nothing further to say. There must be no question of money in this thing. I want to know just what their attitude

Mr. "P." represented that the above represented what Speaker Clark himself had said to Lauterbach when he formerly had gone to Morgan & Co. "I want you to know that Mr. Lauterbach went there by the explicit au-thority and direction of the speaker

The next day Mr. Ledyard telephoned to Lauterbach and said he wished to Without a word of introduction, Mr. Ledyard called on him for a complete story of any part that he had played in any approaches to J. P. Morgan & Co., or any member of that firm with relation to the steel investigation

Lauterbach said the first thing he knew about the steel investigation was when Lamar showed him a resolution which he had prepared to be introduced

Colorado This Summer for Your Annual Vacation

And it's a real "thriller," I tell youa panorama to remember for a lifetime. Truly, Colorado is full of wonders and full of bracing, brilliant loveliness, too, better have followed his advice back in where valleys and streams are simply enchanting.

Begin your happy vacation on the "Rocky Mountain Limited"—every morning from Chicago to Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo via Rock The name given by Mr. Baker was that of a man whom Mr. Ledyard had that of a man whom Mr. Ledyard had make you willing to leave it.

"The Colorado Springs and rueble via day's wonder in itself—only Colorado could make you willing to leave it.

"The Colorado Flyer" every morning way clear. Let me send them to you. K. E. PALMER, Gen'l Eastern Pass into the House providing for the inquiry,

"That is correct," interrupted Lamar

Agent, 1238 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

Couldn't Stop Lamar.

Mr. Lauterbach reported to Ledyard that he expostulated with Lamar and discontinued the connection. said it ought not to be done, but with-Ledyard that he went to see Mr. Morgan within a few minutes after Mr Lamar had shown him the resolution and told Mr. Morgan what a dangerous condition it might bring about, but Mr. Lauterbach found that Mr. Morgan was unwilling to talk with him and told him he had better go to see Mr. Steele. Then he went and saw Mr. Steele and urged that somthing be done. Lauterbach expressed the opinion that he could control Lamar, but Mr. Steele was down the propositions that Mr. Lauchilly and said there was nothing he terbach made. He said it was desired cared to do about it.

Lauterbach told Mr. Ledyard that he saw Mr. Davison on one or two occa- between Washington and the Morgan sions, but his attitude also was frosty. people. He would like to receive a rea-He felt that the Morgan people believed he was tied up with Lamar and was representing him. Latter Lauter- been given to Col. bach went to Washington and then in- Morgan or steel interests such pledges vaded the Morgan offices again to re-

Mr. Ledyard, "that he had looked into party. The aid of the Morgan and steel the situation and now felt confident of his ability to stop the thing irre- support of certain Southern Senators to spective of Lamar but he found that measures that were to be adopted by the they still turned a deaf ear to him."

Had Never Seen Clark.

Mr. Ledyard testified that Lauterbach had told him that he had never seen Mr. Clark on this subject and his life.

Mr. Ledyard asked Lauterbach if he had ever heard or known of any person having telephoned Mr. Steele with a suggestion of heading off the steel investigation. He said after some hesi-

"what initial his name began with and fact that they had established such re-he said 'R.' I asked him what dis-lations with such people would put them trict he represented and he said a New forever at the mercy of those people. York district. I then asked him if it That is what I have thought." was Riordan, and he said it was.

prominent in the Democratic organi-zation with whom Riordan had dis-stance of a telephone conversation with cussed the matters. He said he did and a person claiming to be Representative that his name began with C and that Riordan. He had suspected that his his first name was J., and that he was interviewer was not Mr. Riordan, a man who now occupies an important had not connected him with Lamar public post in New York. I said: 'Was until after comparing notes with it J. Sergeant Cram? and he said Lovett and Mr. Ledyard.

Lauterbach, according to Mr. Ledyard, said he had been present when Riordan had spoken to Cram about stopping the steel investigation, but Lamar's Acts Not Indictable Unies that Mr. Cram had not paid much at tention to it. The next morning, February 7, Mr Ledyard called up Representative Pal-mer and it developed that the real Mr. Palmer did not know Mr. Ledyard and done anything indictable, And when had had no telephonic conversations all his testimony had been read and entire story.

Sends for the Morgans.

On the same day the mysterious Mr. Davison. They all went to his office. Mr. "P." called up again later in the afternoon and the second telephone was near the conversation. Mr. "P." inquired in regard to the interview with Lauterbach and Mr. Ledyard told him that the results were not such as to confirm the impression that he (Mr. "P.") had had about Lauthis doubt and that Speaker Clark him-self had been much surprised and dis-turbed at "P's" report. Mr. "P." said trepresenting any political leaders in prise and he doubted whether Lauterbach really had performed his mission. Mr. "P." then acknowledged that the supposed instructions that had gone to Lauterbach had not been delivered by him in person.

He said the Speaker had used Sen-ator Stone of Missouri as his instrument and Senator Stone was to employ Lauterbach for the purpose, Mr. "P." wanted to know if the Morgan people were ready to deal with Lauterbach now and Mr. Ledyard pleaded that he did not like to talk of such things over the telephone. He suggested that it would be more satisfactory if he could see

Additional . Through Atlantic City Trains

July 3 and on Saturdays

July 12 to August 30, inclusive Lv. New York Pennsylvania Sta. 5.50 P. M. Hudson Terminal 5.48 P. M. Ar. Atlantic City . .

Sundays July 6 to August 24, inclusive,

Other through trains leave New York, Pennsylvania Station, 10.12 A. M., (1.20 P. M. Saturdays only).

Mr. "P." Mr. "P." insisted on knowing whether the Morgan house was ready to cooperate with the Democratic organization in Washington. Again Mr. Ledyard pleaded for a personal interview, but Mr. "P." said he would have to confer with Senator Stone, the Speaker and Representative Henry Mr. Ledyard wanted to know where he might address him in the meantime and Mr. "P." said he would be in Bethlehem on Sunday. How He Trapped Lamar.

Mr. Ledyard then explained how he trapped Mr. Lamar. He has two tele-phones in his home in New York. One GAVE AMORY A TURNDOWN rings in the servants' pantry and the other rings directly on his desk. February 8 his butler told him that Mr.

"P." wanted to speak with him. "I told my butler," said Mr. Ledyard, "The Colorado Flyer" every morning from St. Louis, and other splendidly equipped, fast daily trains via Rock Island Lines to Colorado.

Low fares daily, June 1st to September 30th. "Little Journeys in Colorado" and "Under the Turquoise Sky" are two books which make the way clear. Let me send them to you.

whom the telephone was connected. "I waited at this private phone for a few minutes until I got a report from the manager. He told me the telephone was connected with 5397 River and it was an unlisted phone, but that it stood in the name of Marie Lamar. Then I caught up the other public telephone which I supposed Mr. 'P.' was holding, but discovered that the party there had Lauterbach Comes Back. The next day, Mr. Ledyard called up bach called on him. At this interview. Mr. Lauterbach maintained that the Clark vas Senator Stone, Mr. Lauterbach purported to give information as to who would be Attorney-General in the Wilson Cabinet. He assured Mr. Ledyard that it would be a man who could be controlled by Speaker Clark. Mr. Ledyard took a pad and wrote by those whom he represented in Washington that he be the intermediary sonable fee for his services.

He insisted that if any pledges had port that the Democratic leaders really further stipulated that there was to be did not want the investigation.

"He stated to Mr. Steele," testified crats, Republicans or the Progressive no campaign contributions to the Demo-Democratic party

Ledyard Gives Motive.

At the conclusion of Mr. Ledyard's direct testimony Senator Cummins questioned him closely as to the motives which he supposed had actuated Laman and Lauterbach in their complex scheme

"I thought it meant this," said Mr. Ledvard, " that if these men could come to us and pretend they could contro legislation and it did not make any tation: "Yes, a member of Congress." difference whether they were able to "I asked him." said Mr. Ledyard. control the legislation or not, the very Following Mr. Ledyard's testimony "I asked him if he knew of any man Maxwell Evarts was sworn. He had

NO CRIME, SAY LAWYERS.

Dave Lamar's testimony caused whether or not he had admitted having could be indicted for the things he admits having done

The official attention of District Attor. ney Whitman has not been called to any of the proceedings in the Washingto "P." called up again and Mr. Ledyard inquiry into the Union Pacific scandal and the District Attorney himself has been so busy with the Duffy and Stilwell cases and routine matters that he arranged in such a way that Mr. Mor-gan, his son, and Mr. Davison could the newspapers have printed. Mr. Whit-any opinion as to the legal feature of Lamar's activities. It was learned from a lawyer tha Lamar's admission that he had impersonated Congressman Riordan and Rep-Lamar did, according to his own admissions, and throughout his testimony he has not said that he had demanded money for the fulfilment of any of the Sandy Hook at a late hour:

things he promised. The mere fact that Lamar used th Palmer had then asked that Mr. Lauterbach be employed as counsel in a case did not constitute a crime.

Nor was it a crime, it was said, for Lamar to have called up the American -Lamar said the Journal, but it was the American which published the off Staten Island last week.

Union Pacific story which brought A fire started at 7:30 last Judge Lovett's statement—and given false, unless his purpose in having the story printed was to get money.

STATE EXAMINERS APPOINTED. Regents Name Many Persons for morning. Several Boards.

ALBANY, July 2 .- The State Board of Regents made appointments to several The appointments are:

William C. Deane of the First district and Albert M. Wright of the Third district to succeed themselves for four years, be-

William C. Deane of the First district and Albert M. Wright of the Third district to succeed themselves for four years, beginning August 1, 1913.

State Board of Pharmacy: George C. Diskman of New York and Bryon M. Hyde of Rochester to succeed themselves for three years, beginning August 1, 1913, and Thomas F. Raymow of Brooklyn to succeed Clarence O. Bigeloe for three years, beginning August 1, 1913.

State Board of Examiners of Certified Public Accountants: Charles S. McCulloh of New York to succeed himself for three years, beginning August 1, 1913.

State Board of Examiners in Optometry: Charles F. Prentice of New York and George R. Fox of Buffalo to succeed themselves for three years, beginning August 1, 1913.

State Board of Examiners in Optometry: Charles F. Prentice of New York and George R. Fox of Buffalo to succeed themselves for three years, beginning August 1, 1913.

Inspector of Pharmacy: Harry N.

Boats East 99th & 134th St.

LAMAR'S CHARGE IS DENIED BY GIBSON

Never Alleged There Was $82,-000,000 Union Pacific Forgery, He Says.

Got Proposal, He Asserts, to Attack Every Railroad in the Country.

William N. Amory, who was secrephone, that the connection was still up tary of the Third Avenue Railroad until 1900 and has been prominent since in his continuous fight against the Metropolitan syndicate, was mentioned last night by Thomas Gibson as having interested himself in the Union Pacific accounting and the alleged forgery of $82,000,000, through which David La-mar charges that E. H. Harriman and Kuhn, Loeb & Co. became enriched by millions of dollars.

Thomas Gibson, a financial writer. publisher of the Financial Outlook at 29 Broadway and head of a financial news service, was mentioned as the source of his information about the $82,000,000 item in Union Pacific accounting. Mr. Gibson said last night that he had never made any statement that there intermediary between him and Speaker had been a forgery in Union Pacific ac counting, but had simply analyzed the

He said that Mr. Amory had requested him to enter with him into a campaign to show that all the railroads of the country were really on the verge of bankruptcy. Mr Gibson flatly refused, cial assistant by District Attorney he said, and never saw Mr. Amory after the one meeting. Mr. Gibson, "and have never seen him. He subscribed to my service. He took Union Pacific in 1910. For these he still owes me $80, the full amount of his bill, The letters from which he got information are purely a statistical exhibit, an analysis of the Union Pacific reports. There is no charge of forgery in them.

"Mr. Amory came to me in 1911 with a letter of introduction. He had read the Union Pacific letters. me to cooperate with him in showing that all the railroads of the country were 'mere shells.' He said he believed all the railroads to be on the verge of bank-

"I told him I had no intention of at tacking the railroads, that I was far from believing them 'mere shells' and better conditions than ever before. He said that he considered I did not have an open mind and left."

Mr. Gibson, when asked if he had heard of the efforts at the beginning of the year of a group to try to prove the had heard of indefinite rumors mentioning Lamar, a financial writer named McGuire and a third.

The market letter on which Lamar based his Union Pacific story at the investigation, said Mr Gibson, contained of liabilities to the extent of $82,000. 000 had been eliminated in the 1901 Union Pacific report, the duplication of assets had remained as before ANOTHER OIL TANK SHIP FIGHTS FIRE sistant District Attorney. Miss Jessie Wilson, the Sioux, Sister Vessel of Wrecked . Mohawk, in Trouble Near Barnegat Bay.

The Standard Oil Company had two fires yesterday, one at sea, the other in its Bayonne plant. The oil tank ship Sloux of the Stand ard, which cleared this port at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning bound for Tuxpan, Mexico, sent a wireless yesterday afternoon that she had a fire on board and was off Barnegat Bay N. J. The message was picked up by the Southern Pacific steamship Comus and sent to the Brooklyn navy yard.

The navy yard forwarded the messag to Chief Kenlon in this city and the chief ordered the fireboat New Yorker to go to the Sioux's assistance. was received last night that the fire was under control and that the Sioux needed no assistance. The cheering news was picked up by the United Fruit Company's steamship Santa Marta, which forwarded it to This message was received from "Fire on the Sloux is reported under control, and she requests no assistance telepone and said he was Riordan or It is presumed she has resumed her journey south. The fireboat passed in here at 11 P. M. She waited off here two hours for the Sioux." The Sioux is commanded by Capt. Lotze. She is a sister ship of the Mohawk, which caught fire and sunk

A fire started at 7:30 last night in the wax paraffin press buildings of that paper the story, even if it was the Standard Oil Company's plant on Constable Hook about 500 feet back from the Kill van Kull. By midnight it had caused about $150,000 damage. It was under control and it was thought that it would be out before

PREDICTION BY JANE ADDAMS.

She Thinks New York Will Soon Follow Illinois for Equal Suffrage.

Miss Jane Addams refused to hazard a

Inspector of Pharmacy: Harry N. Boats East 99th & 134th St. Butler of New York to serve during the Free Fireworks Tues. & Thursdays pleasure of the beard, beginning July 1, and ceremony that have characterized several previous White House weddings

MISS JESSIE WILSON TO WED F. B. SAYRE

Continued from First Page.

28 years old and is employed as a spe-Charles S. Whitman at New York. was born in South Bethlehem, Pa. He "I do not know David Lamar," said was graduated from Lawrenceville School in New Jersey in 1904, and from Williams College in 1909. He then en- tional executive board of the Y. W. C. A. the special series of market letters on tered the Harvard Law School, from which he was graduated "cum laude." At Williams College he was a mem-

> Gargoyle society and the Phi Beta Kappa society. Mr. Sayre's father, the late Robert Heysham Sayre, built the Lehigh Val- the bill. ley Railroad and was at one time as-He also built up and became general manager of the Bethlehem Iron Works, Bethlehem Steel Works. Mr. Sayre was at one time president of the board of in 1907.

The mother of Francis Bowes Sayre, on the contrary believed them to be in Mrs. Martha Finlay Sayre, is the daughter of the late John Williamson Nevin, who was president of Franklin and Marshall College at Lancaster, Pa She is a descendant of Hugh Williamthe framers of the Constitution of the Union Pacific had falsified its accounts United States. She is a sister of the and was really bankrupt, sai dthat he late Robert J. Nevin, head of the American Church at Rome, Italy, and a cousin of Ethelbert Nevin, the com-

> Mr. Sayre's brother, the Rev. John Nevin Sayre, who was graduated from Princeton in 1907 and from Cambridge Seminary in 1911, is a missionary in evening that Mr. Sayre has been work-few weeks ago to take his bar exam-inations in this State. As soon as he is and then prove the practicability of the admitted he will be made a Deputy As-sistant District Attorney. airship which he says will revolutionize the science of aviation. President Wilson's three daughters, is Closed Fridey and Saturday, July 4th and 5th Every man should get a dozen of these 6000 pairs of $1 Clocked Silk Hose today at 59c I This is the first silk hose to be clocked by machinery, instead of by hand, and to us has been reserved the privilege of introducing it at this special price. It is full fashioned hose, made of pure silk, with liste soles and spliced heels and

But you cannot match the value.

Men's Bathing Suits at $1.98 toes, clocked at the sides just as artistically and perfectly as if it were done by hand. In fact, the workmanship and finish all through is the best you can buy in hose of the dollar variety. The assortment includes white, black, tan, navy or royal blue, two shades of gray, purple and green. You can thus match any color scheme you have in mind for celebrating the Fourth.

$3, $4 and $4.50 Values

Pure worsted bathing suits at $1.98 are not to be picked up like pebbles on the beach. Such, at least, is our experience, and your opportunities in this direction can hardly be so favorable as our own. As for the workmanship in these bathing suits, it is beyond reproach, and you may take our word for it that they will give you whole summers of service. The assortment includes plain colors, and red or white bordered effects, as well as a few novelty suits, in both quarter and sleeveless models. But don't lose any time.

Saks & Company

Broadway at 34th Street.

Her interest in charitable affairs caused in this city with Mrs. J. Borden Harriber of the Sigma Phi fraternity, the man last winter. She addressed members of the Delaware Legislature in February in behalf of a ten hour day law for working women and they passed

Miss Wilson's resemblance to her father is not so marked as that of her sisters. Her pattern is rather that of has been called "the prettiest of the Wilson girls." She is also the executive of the home circle. When the Democratic convention was alloting at Baltimore she prepared diagram at Sea Girt and the rest of the family had to flock to her to find just what the situation was as the dele gations changed their votes. Miss Wilson is witty as well as serious. She likes tennis, riding, swimming and other sports-dancing too

PRISON HALTS AIRSHIP PLAN.

Miss Wilson was born in Gainesville

Habitual Criminal to Complete Test After Serving Term. Harry S. Bretton, 63 years old, civil en gineer, inventor and habitual criminal, having given up his fight to remain out of prison that he might test a new aeroplane old Queens county jail, Long Island City ing in his office for the last year doing of Sing to serve a sentence of one year special work. Sayre left the office a and three months. He hopes to get out of sorts is expected to break all previous records. Come to Bloomingdales to supply your outing needs. Complete stocks and prompt service right up to the last minute.

BLOOMING DALES

RUSSIAN EDUCATORS COMING

Parts of 70 Will Investigate Conditions in This Country.

25 years old. She was a Phi Beta Kappa and an honor member of the class of 1908 at the Woman's College, Baltimore, For two years after graduation she was clila it will place in commission to-day the country.

The Merchants Association is raising a fund to entertain the educators here. The party will devote five days to New in settlement work in Kensington, Philadelphia.

Miss Wilson is a member of the na
Puritan to accommodate the many additional requests on the Fall River Line for staterooms on July 3. Both steamers will leave Pier 14, North River, at 5:30 F. M.

Puritan to entertain the educators here will devote five days to New York. Consul-General J. H. Sondgrass, staterooms on July 3. Both steamers will leave Pier 14, North River, at 5:30 F. M.

You May Say "Good-night, Nurse!"

with a feeling of absolute confidence that there will be hot-water for the "hot-water bag," or for any other emergency, if you have a GAS WATER HEATER. As GAS WATER HEATERS are made in various sizes, they are designed for use in the home, hospital, hotel, club, institution, work-shop or stable. Hot water is always an essential and a GAS WATER HEATER is indispensable.

You can see this health and comfort-giving appliance and have its simple operation explained to you at any Gas Office in Manhattan or the Bronx.

"The Right Way Is the Gas Way"

Consolidated Gas Company of New York GEO. B. CORTELYOU, President